BECAUSE OF YOU we are able to help many non-profit organizations further their mission, build capacity, and successfully meet the needs of thousands in our community on the front lines. Thank you!

Now more than ever organizations face unprecedented pressure of increased needs. We are prepared to meet those needs — it's who we are. But we need your help.

As community needs grow, the need to have more robust collective giving is imperative. Collaboration is key. Consider making an investment in must! charities today. Together we can positively impact multiple non-profit organizations and thousands of lives for good.

BECAUSE OF YOU

Kate was beginning to enjoy a simpler life. After raising her three children as a single mother, she was looking forward to a slower pace. Then tragedy struck, and she found herself suddenly raising two grandchildren.

Because of you... and programs we invest in such as Camino Scholars, Kate has a lifeline at her housing complex to help her and her grandchildren with school, mentoring and things like field trips. Help she would not otherwise be able to provide.

*Check out our project impacts:

When COVID shut down our country, Joseph was furloughed. He began to take side jobs, doing whatever he could to make ends meet for his family. It wasn't quite enough, and soon he was behind on utility bills.

Because of you... our COVID Community Response Project made the difference between being housed and being homeless for him and his son. Joseph is caught up on his bills, back to work, and keeping a few side jobs to build an emergency savings. He continues to meet his case manager, and has an action plan of saving 50% of all the income he gets from his extra jobs.
